

"BASEBALL: ITS MATHAMATICALLY INEVITABLE"
BY PAT/SALTY

BASEBALL REALLY IS.

A GAME OF MATHAMATICAL INEVITABILITIES.

The WORST HITTING PLAYER ON ANY TEAM IS ALWAYS MATHAMATICALLY GUARENTEED TO HIT SOMETHING.

180., 120., 90 — SOMETHING.

The WORST PITCHER IN ALL OF BASEBALL IS MATHAMATICALLY GUARENTEED TO THROW STRIKES — AT LEAST SOME STRIKES.

The numbers HAVE TO COME.

Whether high, medium, OR LOW NUMBERS

— WHO KNOWS? — BUT THE NUMBERS WILL COME.

EVERY TEAM IS MATHAMATICALLY

GUARENTEED EVERY SEASON TO GET

BOTH WINS AND LOSSES.

EVERY TEAM IN THE MAJORS THAT

HAS EVER EXISTED — ITS GUARENTEED.

BATTING SLUMPS WILL HAPPEN EVERY

SEASON TO EVERY HITTER.

ALWAYS HAVE AND ALWAYS WILL.

MATHAMATICS GUARENTEE IT.

AND MATHAMATICS ARE NEVER, EVER WRONG.

BASEBALL, IN A VERY REAL SENSE,

IS MATHAMATICS. APPLIED MATHAMATICS.

SO FANS DON'T ABSOLUTELY HAVE TO ROOT, ROOT

FOR THE HOMETEAM; ITS ALL MATHAMATICALLY INEVITABLE! X
